

Colon Cancer Awareness Month

FACT: Colon Cancer is preventable, treatable, and beatable, if it is detected early.

Possible symptoms:

Bleeding, bloating, diarrhea, constipation, weight loss, fatigue and/or change in bowel habits, however, symptoms do not need to be present to be at risk for colon cancer.

FREE Lunch—Noon to 1pm

Colon Cancer Awareness

Speaker: Robert Miller, MD, Gastroenterologist

When: March 17

Where: Bonefish Grill—Rogers

When: March 18

Where: Outback Steakhouse—Springdale

FREE Breakfast—7:30 to 8:30am

Colon Cancer Awareness

Speakers: Terryl Ortego, MD, Gastroenterologist

Stephen W. Stagg, MD, Gastroenterologist

When: March 31

Where: Northwest Medical Center—Springdale, Tower II—Conference Room

To attend,
please RSVP
800-734-2024

If you're 50, or have a family history, ask about a screening colonoscopy today!

Our Medical Staff

Gastroenterologists: Robert Miller, MD, Terryl Ortego, MD, Stephen W. Stagg, MD

Colorectal Surgeon: David Magee, MD, William Nowlin, MD, Hollis Rogers, III, MD

General Surgeons: John D. Alston, MD, Jerry S. Dorman, MD, Stephen Morrison, MD
Robert Petrino, MD, Marc A. Rogers, MD and Joshua Roller, MD